MARK LILLY PHOTOGRAPHY

Specializing in High-Resolution, Large-Format Photographic Wall Murals & Fine Art Photography

Oakland-based photographer Mark Lilly specializes in high-resolution, large-format wall murals and fine art photography. A scientist turned photographer, Mark uses his 20+ years in the meteorological field to predict the optimal weather conditions and extraordinary light that will produce powerful photographs. Mark maintains an extensive catalogue of captivating images, in addition to providing custom murals for corporate, commercial, and retail clients among others. Mark's goal is to transform these visuals--whether a vibrant landscape or a majestic cityscape--into shared, lasting, and deeper experiences.
